MAPA Managers' Report

Background

Hampden operated seven MAPAs for 2008, being MAPAs 7066, 7117, 7200, 7201, 7202, 7203 & 7208. MAPA 7203 was formed in 2006 and MAPA 7208 was newly created for 2008. For 2009, Hampden also started a new spread MAPA 7209 and a single syndicate MAPA 7217, which only underwrites on Syndicate 4242.

All MAPAs contained in this report underwrite on a spread portfolio, focusing on between 11 and 21 syndicates out of 75 trading for the 2008 account, 29 of which are available to Third Party Capital.

A payment of 0.5% of premium limit was made by participating MAPA Members for auction trading in 2008 and the same charge will be made for trading in 2009.

Market Review

This Report is as at 31 December 2008. Below we review the closure of the 2006 Account as at that date and the latest position on the open 2007 and 2008 Accounts. We also comment on the 2009 and 2010 Accounts.

2006 Account

The 2006 Account produced a record profit for Lloyd's of 27.0% on capacity. This result surpasses the previous record on the 2003 Account of 18.8% on capacity. Lloyd's has now declared profits for five successive years.

The strength of the US dollar during the final quarter of 2008, in particular against sterling, led to improvements in the results for many syndicates. 2006 was already a year of very low loss frequency and the strengthening of the US dollar only improved the result further, with many syndicates' final result ending up better than the best case estimate. The 2006 Account also benefited from prior year releases which averaged 6.4% on capacity.

The positive impact of the strong dollar and prior year releases were mitigated to some extent by reduced investment returns, which remained positive in 2008.

For 2006 Hampden managed five MAPAs with the average result being 28.8% on capacity, outperforming Lloyd's by 1.8% and the average for Members' Agents by 3.1%. Hampden MAPA 7200 was the best performing MAPA in the market with a profit of 33.0% on capacity. In last year's MAPA Report the average result for 2006 for Hampden's Members was estimated to be a profit of between 15.2% and 20.7%.

2007 Account

The Lloyd's estimate for the 2007 Account as at 31 December 2008 is a profit of 8.9%, unchanged from the previous quarter and within the estimate contained in last year's MAPA Report of a profit of between 6.8% and 15.2%.

There was relatively low loss activity in 2007, albeit the loss activity was greater than 2006. The major loss in 2007 was the Californian fires, which occurred in October 2007. Pricing, however, continued to reduce in most parts of the account in 2007 following what was an exceptional year in 2006.

On the 2007 Account Hampden's six MAPAs are again estimated to outperform with an average estimated result of 12.7% on capacity, outperforming the Members' Agents' average result by 1.0% and Lloyd's average by 3.8%.

2008 Account

The first 2008 forecasts show an average profit for the overall Lloyd's market of 3.0% (Hampden 5.3%). The combined effect of a high incidence of property claims, caused by both natural catastrophe and man-made events, mean the underwriting profit will be small, while the investment return will also be lower than previous years. 2008 marked the third worst year on record for insured catastrophe losses. In addition, investment losses are estimated by the New York based Insurance Information Institute to have been the fourth largest "capital event" over the past 20 years for the US property and casualty insurance industry.

Given all of these factors, an overall profit for the market would represent a reasonable performance, although it must be remembered that the year remains "on risk".

2009 Account

In December 2008 we predicted that 2009 would be a "year of transition" as the market moved from a softening/soft market to a hardening market and a potential hard market in 2010 or 2011. We forecasted a profit for the 2009 Account in a range of 5% to 10% of capacity, excluding prior year releases. Improving market conditions have been driven by an increase in the cost of capital and a need on the part of many companies to rebuild balance sheets after 2008. Reinsurance and catastrophe exposed property business have seen rate increases. Non-catastrophe exposed business remains competitive and the effect of the recession has been to dampen rate increases. The impact of the strengthening of the US dollar compared to the rate used for business planning purposes will increase the utilisation of capacity. To date there have been no significant losses in 2009.

Our profit target of 5% to 10% reflects an improved potential reward for 2009 compared with 2008 (we revised downwards our profit target for 2008 in December 2008 from the initial 5% to 7.5% of capacity set in September 2007 to a range of 0% to 5% of capacity).

Non-life insurance, despite (and perhaps because of) uncertain economic conditions, offers an attractive risk reward proposition for 2010 and beyond. The key to making a return from an investment at Lloyd's is underwriting profitability.

Our view is that Lloyd's is favourably positioned to maintain its record of profitability since 2002. Reinsurance rates have risen this year and insurance rates have stabilised with every sign being that profit potential will improve for 2010, consistent with a hardening market.

Pre-emptions are being offered for 2010 by many syndicates in the MAPAs so the MAPA manager will be assessing the portfolio in this light for 2010 and will be offering pre-emptions to Members.

Quarter 1 2009 Estimates

All figures within this Report are as at 31 December 2008. At the time of the writing we had received the Quarter 1 2009 estimates for the 2007 and 2008 Accounts. The mid-point 2007 estimate for Hampden is a 12.8% profit (Lloyd's 9.8%), with the MAPAs average profit being 13.3%.

The mid-point 2008 Account estimate for Hampden is 5.3% (Lloyd's 3.0%), with the MAPAs average profit being 5.6%.
